

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

TRIUMPH OF THE FIRST CRUSADE TO THE HOLY LAND

DESERT ORDEAL OF THE KNIGHTS 797
THE CAPTURE OF JERUSALEM 839
FRANCIS BOURGEOIS, THOMAS NEBBIA

f Marmara Civetot
S. Marmara Nicaea
is, on May 6, 1097, reached Nicaea, i.e. to the old Byzantine, main and Asia Minor. Six weeks later, Seljuk
re-entered the city to the Byzantines.

11 Turks on July 1 ambush the first Crusader army to reach Dorylaeum. The arrival of the second army surprises the Turks, while a third Crusader force turns near-defeat into Christian victory.

Thyatira
(Akhisar)
a

A black and white map of the Roman Empire. It features a grid of latitude and longitude lines. Several cities are labeled: 'Sardis' at the top left, 'Philadelphia' and '(Azæchin)' in the center, and 'Laodicea' at the bottom. The map also shows the Mediterranean Sea and various provinces.

Varia Pist

10125-1
Rhodes (Ródhos) Lycaea Myra (Eynihal)

d i t e r r a n

A small map of the Balkan Peninsula. The word 'Petchen' is written in a cursive font in the upper right quadrant, pointing towards the northern part of the peninsula. Other labels include 'HUNGARY' at the top, 'CROATIA' in the center, 'ITALY' on the left, 'SERBIA' at the bottom, and 'Adriatic' written vertically along the coast.

A historical map of the southern Italian coast, specifically the regions of Apulia and Calabria. The map shows the coastline with various towns labeled. In the center, the city of Taranto is marked. To its west is Brindisi. Further west along the coast are Bari and Trani. To the east, the city of Otranto is shown. The map also includes labels for 'ROMAN STATES', 'BYZANTINE', and 'NORMAN PRINCIPALITIES'. A label 'BOHEMUND OF TARANTO AND TANCREDO' is placed near the city of Taranto. The sea is labeled 'SEA'.

A small map showing the island of Sicily and nearby islands like Modon, Coron, and Crete.

Non-Moslem Sea

SIA

Cumans

Black Sea

Constantinople Danishmen
Seljuk Turks Angora (Ankara)
ARMENIAN
STATE

A small map of the Roman Empire showing provinces such as Antioch, Rhodes, Cappadocia, and Syria.

A small map of the region around Jerusalem, showing the city itself, the Mediterranean Sea to the west, and the Jordan River flowing eastward. The word "EGYPT" is written in the lower left corner, and "ARABIA" is written vertically along the right side.

